*Note: Delegations will be seated in alphabetical order but may caucus in any group they deem necessary. Many delegates may choose to caucus by region in order to better represent local views and preferences. It is the prerogative of the Chair to allow additional caucus time as needed by the delegates on specific motions or a set of motions. A caucus consists of an informal meeting of those delegates who have similar feelings on a particular motion or wish to discuss a motion in more detail. Various caucus groups may wish to confer with each other in order to reach compromise on a specific motion or motions that are under discussion.
